Town Hall Meeting Provides Veterans Updates To Western New York National Cemetery

VA National Cemetery Administration is holding a town hall meeting on Wednesday, October 9th at 3pm at the Pembroke Community Hall, 116 East Main Street, Corfu, New York.

Western New York National Cemetery Director, James Metcalfe will provide an update to the status of the Veterans cemetery being built in Pembroke, New York. The town hall meeting is open to Veterans and their families, Veterans Service Organizations, government officials, media, other community partners and the public.

It will offer the opportunity to ask questions. Everyone interested in the Veterans Cemetery is encouraged to attend. Ample free parking is available.
